Most of the large producers, if not all, are holding at 14c, delivered, and in the last week have sold possibly 25 per cent of their normal business. They seem willing to book business somewhat further shead than usual. There are persistent rumors to the effect that large consumers have had plenty of copper offered to them at 137 sedelivered, even to Connecticut val-Now points, but we have been unable o find a producer who will anknowledge to have partaken in this busthas sexcept to points near New York where the freight rare is around the per 100 th. FOREIGN DEBT MUST BE SETTLED RIGHT

The refusal of the Harding adminstration to yield to propaganda for cancellation in whole or part, of foreign debts to this country is in keeping with the overwhelming sentiment in the United States.

There are two outstanding unanswerable arguments against the United States government. First, it is a misnomer to speak of the cancellation of European debts as "wiping them out." It would not mean that. It would mean the transference of those debts to the backs of the American taxpayers.

Loans to European nations were made out of funds derived from the sale of Liberty bonds in this country. 44
